We would like to dedicate this yearbook to Miss Mary Humpton, a lady who has devoted many years to Newfield Central School, its students, and the community. Through her helping and caring attitude, she has earned our respect, as well as the respect of the people of Newfield.

Since coming to Newfield Central School in 1954, Miss Humpton has served as advisor to the school newspaper (Echo), the yearbook, the ninth grade, the Senior class, and the Student Council, in addition to her classroom and guidance duties. Besides teaching us how our national government works, she has helped us to understand and direct (govern!) our own lives. Her unique combination of old-fashioned values and up-to-date insights have certainly made our school a better place in which to learn.

But, perhaps Miss Humpton's finest quality is her genuine interest in each individual student. Not only is she a dedicated teacher, ready to make an extra effort to help the student, but also a good friend—always willing to listen to and help with our problems.

Thank you, Miss Humpton.

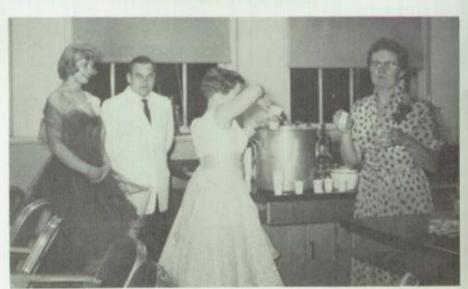

"My goodness Florence, you do go on!"

"WINNERS OF IAC AWARD FOR SPORTSMANSHIP

The 1980 football season was one of adversity. The team's overall record was 2-7. The players persevered through inexperience and a shortage in numbers, but throughout the season grew in both experience and maturity.

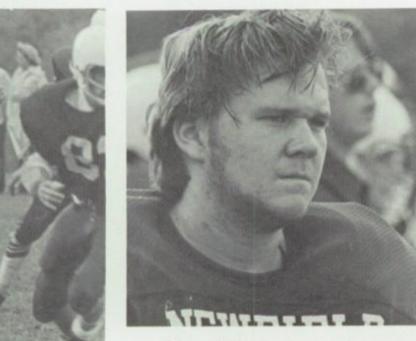

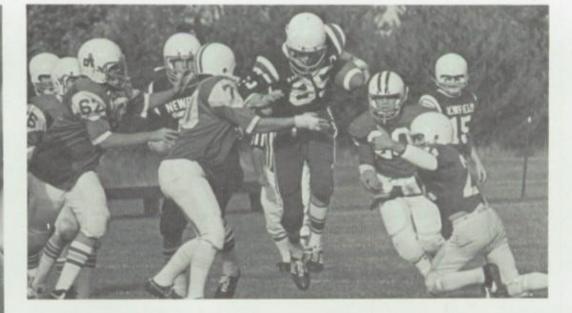

Goehner, Dean Taggart, Andy Allen, Paul Van Buskirk, Darrell Orr.

The 1980 mod squad season was a good one with a record of 4-3.

Both next year's varsity and mod squad seasons look to be good ones, with experienced players moving up to the varsity team and fresh, young players joining the modified team.

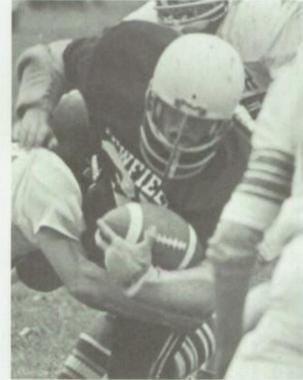

HOME COMING 1980

Homecoming weekend began on Friday afternoon with a Pep Assembly. The members of the Football, Cross Country, and Field Hockey teams were introduced and Dave Kippola and Gina VanAllen were proclaimed Homecoming King and Queen. Keith Palmer and Bridget Murray were the Junior Attendants. Friday night's cheering around the bonfire raised a lot of school spirit.

At the football game on Saturday, the class spirit murals were shown — the Class of 1985 won the contest. Throughout the game the Cheerleaders were accompanied by a Pep Band, directed by Mr. Aiosa.

Saturday night's dance completed a great Homecoming weekend!

CROSS COUNTRY

1980 Division Champs

Cross country had its best season ever with the varsity boys' team winning the Southern Division title with an undefeated 6-0 record. The team also captured third place in both the League Meet and the Sectionals. Jerry Belles was named to the League All-Star team, Brenda Breen ran well in the varsity girls' races and the junior high teams were very strong with the girls' team winning both the Moravia and league championships.

V. VOLLEYBALL

Although the Varsity Volleyball team's win-loss record was disappointing, the team pulled together and vastly improved over the final stretch of the season. Because of this marked improvement, the team was sorry to see the season end. Six Seniors will graduate from the team with two Juniors and two Sophomores returning as the nucleus for next year's team.

Sitting: Linda Comstock. Kneeling: Gina VanAllen, Belinda Orr, Kaye Henry, Lisa Gehring, Iretta Williams. Standing: Coach Jim VanDuren, Coach Mary Beth Fiore, Mary Meeker, Pat Gay, Sue James.

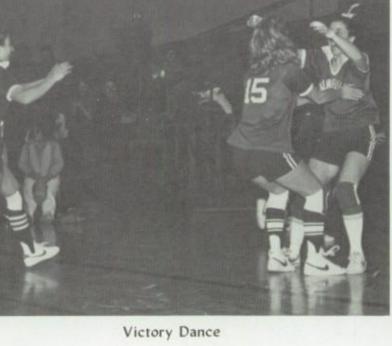

The 1980-81 J.V. Volleyball team began the season with many young and eager to learn, although inexperienced players. The season record does not reveal the knowledge and skills the players gained, or show their marked improvement. Those who were involved with the J.V. Volleyball program anticipate a strong team next year, leading to several more years of well-played volleyball at Newfield.

1981 TROJAN WRESTLERS

This year's team, while facing a variety of setbacks, managed to sustain a rebuilding program. Senior Jeff Saunders completed a fine year capping a very successful career. The remainder of the team exhibited a desire to further Newfield's wrestling tradition. Next year's team should be a highly competitive group of grapplers.

JUNIOR VARSITY—Top of 'T': Diane Teeter, Wendy Anderson, Beth Schwoeble, Michelle Anthony. Shaft of 'T': Donna Town, Terri Tucker, Shawn Cahill, Angie Wheeler.

Basketball Cheerleaders

VARSITY—From top: Marnie Vaughan, Ann Allen, Amy Schwoeble, Rhonda Kelly.

1981 TROJAN BASKETBALL

This year's Newfield varsity boy's basketball team, although inexperienced, worked hard to improve and play competetive basketball. Leading scorers were Bryon Hunter and Jeff LaFave, ably assisted by LeRoy Barrett and Bruce Ray.

This group continually exhibited the desire and attitudes to be winners in life.—Coach Jack

Weeks.

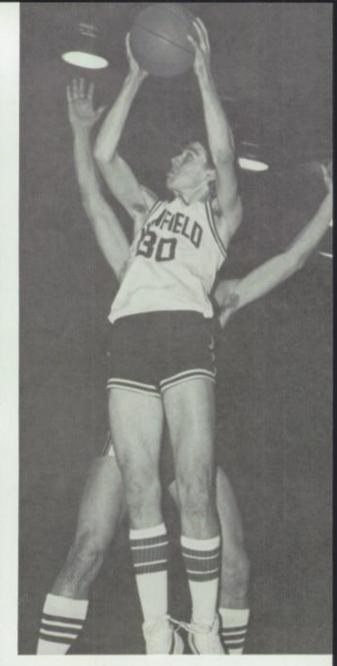

The JV team had a good season this year led by captain, Bob Sinn. The team's attitude was very positive and everyone worked hard. We had some disappointments, but the team came back to play well. There are many Freshmen on the team and I hope the future will be successful also.—Coach Gary Emerson.

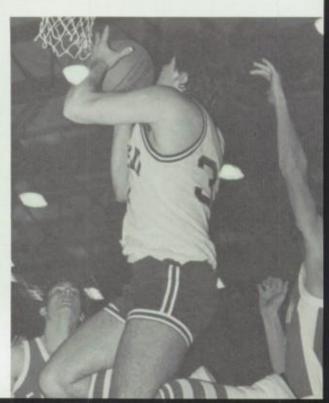

GIRLS' BASKETBALL 1981

VARSITY

Kneeling: Brenda Breen, Belinda Orr, Joan Crance, Shelley Kriner, Kym Ferrell. Standing: Coach Sue France, Val Brown, Mary Meeker, Amy Bartlett, Amy Pullman, Linda Comstock, Kammy Marshall, Anita Barlow, Coach Sarah Dodd.

The 1981 girls' varsity basketball team was a hard-working, yet inexperienced team, and were contenders in their division all season. Brenda Breen was the varsity captain for 1981, while Linda Comstock, Belinda Orr, Kym Ferrell, and Kammy Marshall were the returning veterans. Although this season was considered a rebuilding year, the girls certainly didn't forget how to win.

This year's junior varsity girls' basketball team included one junior, two sophomores, three freshman, and four eighth graders. Although it was a young team with only two returnees from last year's squad, good young talent provided the means for the team's steady improvement over the season.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Kneeling: Anita Miller, Linda Ruuspakka, Debbie Laughlin, Terrie McDonald, Christine Brown, Lori Lobdelle. Standing: Coach Karen Hollister, Terrie Yaple, Ivy Longcoy, Melody Poole, Suzette Thompson, Bernadette Stranger, Coach Jim VanDuren.

TRACK 1980

Count the 1980 Track season a failure, if team win-lose record be the criterion. As with most Newfield teams, lack of participation resulted in a lack of victories. Both boy's and girl's varsities went winless.

Count the season a mixed success and failure, if individual winloss records be the criterion. Five varsity members were successful enough to compete in the Sectionals—meaning each was one of the top three competitors in his/her event in the entire IAC.

In terms of personal advancement, however, the season was a total success. The team as a group logged some 2400 miles of road work in ten weeks' practice. Flaccid amoebae transfigured themselves into athletes; stumbling novices transformed themselves into competent performers.

A bad season? It depends on one's perspective.

Ha Ha, I made it in time!

The 1980 Softball Team finished their season with an 8-5 record, placing second in the division. Val Banks was named to the IAC All-Star Team. Val Banks, Sandy Beardslee and Jeanne Grimsey were captains.

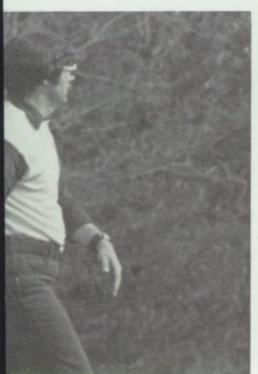

Go for it, Amyl

The 1980 softball team became a unified group as soon as they took the field each game. This unity, however, was not enough to overcome all their opponents, ending the season with a 3-3 record.

VARSITY — Kneeling: Don Clark, Dave Kippola, Bruce Ray, Jeff LaFave, Andy Charnley, Dave Schaad. Standing: Bill Humble, Roy Trask, Smit James, Rick Banker, Jamie Drader, Jim Foster, Coach Al George.

The 1980 Varsity Baseball team had a hard season against tough competition. Even though the team had outstanding fielding percentages, the young pitchers were put to the test. The team ended its season with a 4-13 record with high hopes for next year. David Kippola was selected for the IAC All-Star team.

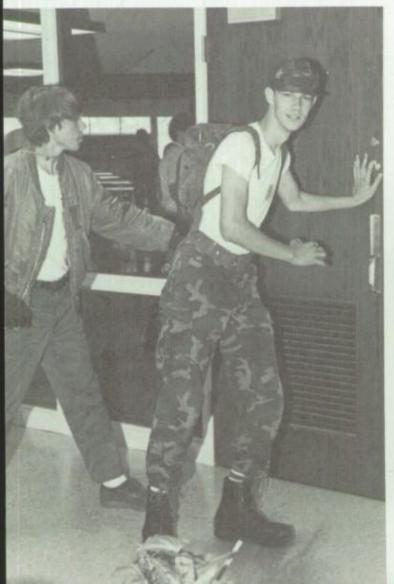

The 1980 Junior Varsity Baseball team proved that they would be adding experience and potential to next year's varsity team when they finished their season with a 6-8 record and captured the division championship.

SPRING WEEK '80

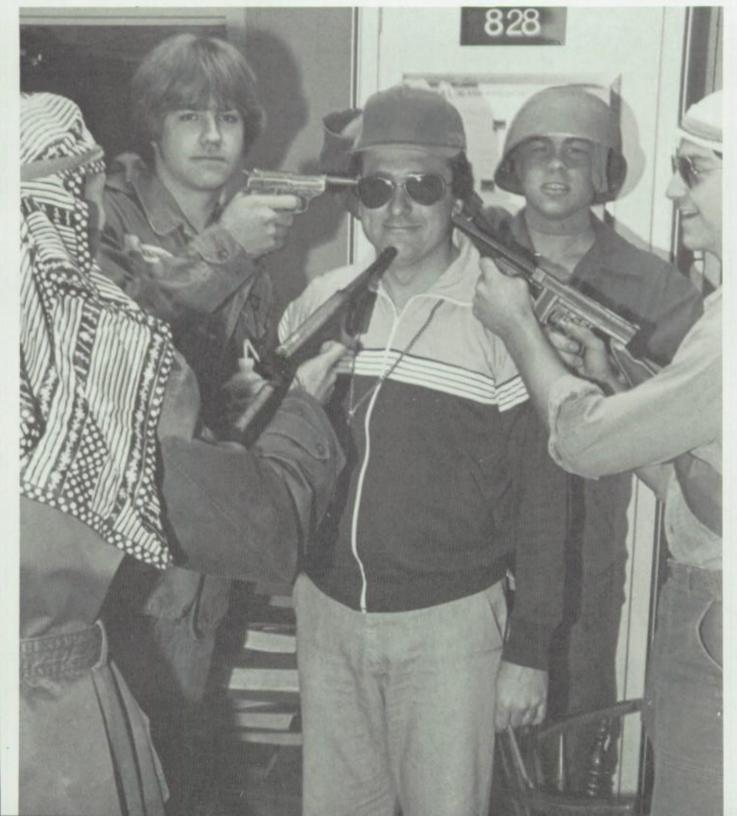

... THE TAKEOVER

On Friday, May 9, at 8:25 a.m., eleven members of the Arab-backed Newfield Liberation Front stormed the High School Office, demanding the return of "Shah" Donald Hickman to stand trial for past crimes against the student body. Hickman, who has been "in exile" in the elementary building since January of 1980, was accused of "giving boring speeches at graduation," "snapping his fingers in the halls," and "other crimes too terrible to mention."

The siege took High School Principal Keith Reester totally by surprise, as seen below, but did not, however, result in the return of "Shah" Hickman.

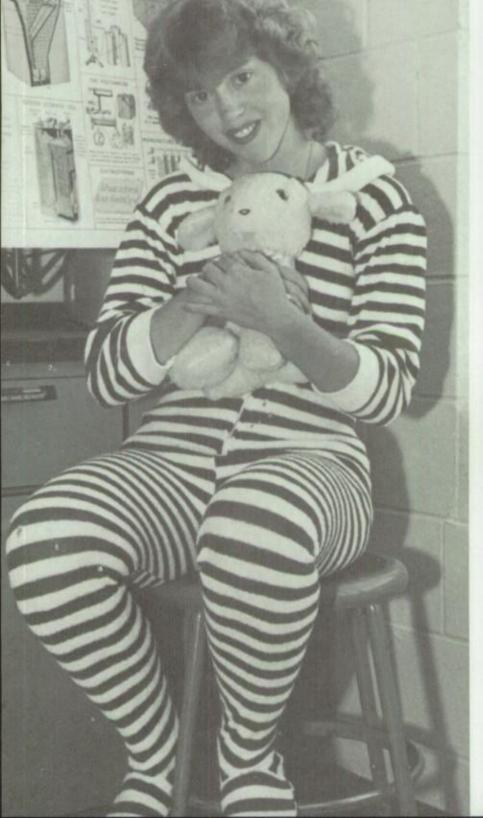

SPRING WEEK '80

... THE MAKEOVER

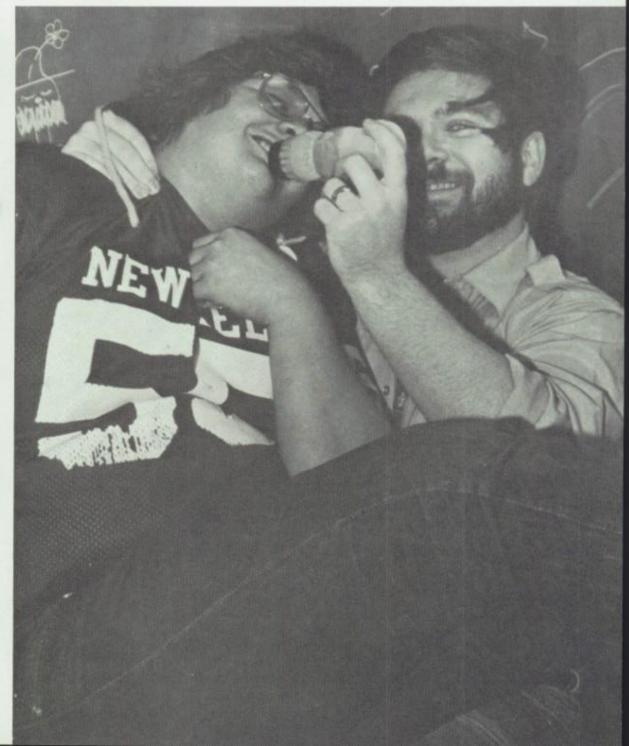

Spring Week was a time for everyone to let their true colors shine through. The week started off with Clash Day: purple checks and green stripes were a common sight. Tuesday featured Future Day, which seemed to be based mostly on the past: Romans clad in sheet togas roamed the halls. On Wednesday, many people thought they were seeing double: They were, as students dressed like a friend for Twin Day. Thursday was the day for the most popular event of the week, Regression Day.

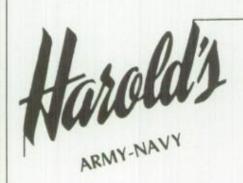

Looking young again was no problem for the students of Newfield—acting young was even easier for them! Diapers, sleepsuits, and teddy bears were all numerous on Thursday. The final day of Spring Week was proclaimed Theme Day, and each class was encouraged to develop an individual theme. Occupations, the Circus, and the Old West were a few of the choices, with the faculty opting to dress as camp counselors at Camp Newfield. Seniors provided an extra thrill with their notorious takeover of the High School Office, featured on the preceding two pages.

SENIOR BAND

This year the Senior Band has been involved in a variety of activities. Five band members attended Area All-State this fall, and two of those members were also nominated to the McDonald's All-American High School Band. Throughout the year the band performed at concerts and assemblies, and a special pep band was formed for Homecoming Weekend. As in past years, the spring was spent marching in local parades, and busily preparing for All-County Band. Once again, hard work and determination led to some really fantastic sounds.

Debra VandeBogart leaves the junior class the ability to compliment (HA, Ha . . .) Mr. Hickman—and get away with it, and her acting ability to Denise AuCoin.

Gene Redman leaves his parking spot on Barnes Hill Road to Eddie Berggren.

Cindy Williams leaves her ability to play clarinet and field hockey to Krys Hogben.

Todd Williams leaves his acting abilities to Darcie Corliss, and his blessing to Sandy Gay, so that she will keep up the good work with the lockers and the toothpaste.

Denise Agati leaves her quietness (until you get to know her) to Kellie Miller.

Charlie Fields leaves his drinking ability to Pam Teeter.

Cindy Wrisley leaves her ability to work 35 hours a week and go to school to Joy Kincaid.

Jeff Saunders leaves his ability to wrestle and make weight to Jeff Kolster.

Donna Schaad leaves her height to Bridget Murray.

Todd Hulbert leaves his great driving ability to Tom Chaffee, and his position on chick patrol to Bumpie Kelly.

Sue Bellehumeur donates her artistic abilities to Miss Berg.

Albert Grimsey leaves a nice quiet math class with no sarcastic remarks to Mr. Monahan.

Brenda Breen leaves Mrs. Wertis a dancing partner for the Senior Dance.

Mary Stafford leaves her interest in everything to Nancy English.

Mark Marshall leaves the basketball pictures in his locker to Bruce Ray.

Kym Ferrell leaves a seat at the Pine Tavern to Kammy Marshall, since she always has to stand.

Don Bellehumeur leaves his ability to get a deer every year to Tim Hayes and his skiing abilities to set Marks. (He rests his case!)

Cindy Guidi leaves her ability to be humane to animals to Louis Agati, and her love for Graig Nettles and the Dallas Cowboys to Mr. Monahan and Ms. France.

Matt Pakkala leaves his speed to his brother Chris.

Gina VanAllen leaves her ability to act like a lady to her sister.

Ray Miller leaves his ability to get injured in football to Bruce Ray.

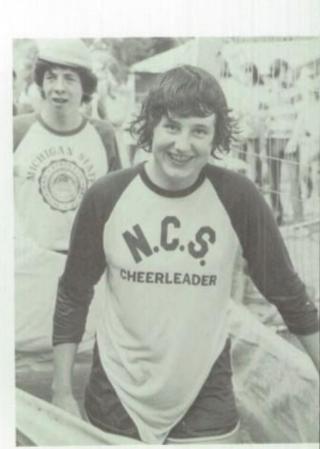

Kathy Aiosa leaves her height to Gary Oakes, and to Ms. France, one less injury-prone field hockey player.

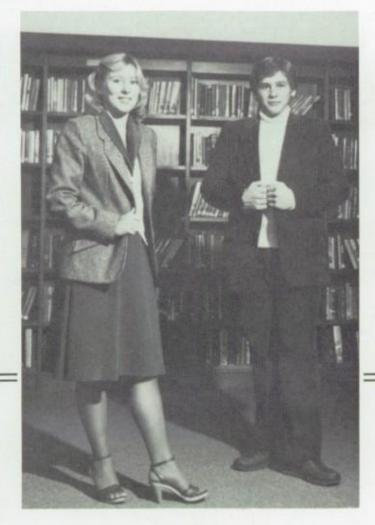

Tim Carlisle leaves a period of relative quiet to Mrs. Wertis, and his ability to talk about any and every subject to his sister, Rae.

WHO'S WHO IN THE CLASS OF '81

Best Dressed

Gina VanAllen, Gordie Vonderlin

To our beloved faculty, who have given us more pieces of their minds than they can afford, we leave the following:

To Mr. Hickman we leave an axe-proof budget. To Mr. Emerson we leave a paper bag, so he can play "The Unknown Comic." To Mrs. Factor we leave a guaranteed box-office hit movie. Mr. Finley gets a razor, so he won't be mistaken for Big Foot. Ms. France gets something to stop the balls from going on top of the gym rafters, while to Mr. George we leave a pleasant write-up from Mr. Morrow and a busload of Ithaca College co-eds. Mrs. Hale finally gets the curtains and mouse trap that she's always wanted. Mr. Herzog deserves to get a great turnout at wrestling tournaments. To Mr. Krause, we leave a 15 page test consisting only of blanks. Mrs. Piscopo gets an independent study class that wants to work. Mr. Powers gets a new set of "Grubby little 7th graders" and a can of air freshener to help with the former. Mr. Houseknecht gets a well-behaved typing class. To Mr. Walker, we leave an icepack to take the swelling off his head from cross country season. To Mr. Slattery we leave a list of "800 numbers" to add to his own special "800 number". To Mrs. Olli we leave a year's supply of Anacin 3 (for obvious reasons!) To Mr. Monahan we leave a study hall with no seventh graders. To Mr. Aiosa we leave a tube of Ben Gay and to Mrs. Wertis we leave a homeroom that waits for the bell. To Mr. Balcome we leave exclusive rights to all AV equipment. To Mr. Howe we leave 73 perfect schedules. To Miss Berg we leave a fresh stock of acrylic white paint. To Mr. Reukauf we leave a class that doesn't chew tobacco. To Mrs. Zollweg we leave our democratic ways and a contract on her life. To Mrs. Caldwell we leave an organized desk and no more yearbook worries (or Steve Bandler headaches). To Mr. Weeks we leave twelve eligible, enthusiastic basketball players. And to Mr. Reester we leave a personal bodyguard to ward off all the angry parents who don't want their children "Bustin Out."
